

Gill, Rufus F. [writer]

Fry, Dr. J. T. [name on envelope]

March 8, 1860 (?)

* February 22, 1892

[A "copy" of Gill's note, in which he leaves some valuable coins to his niece, Ann Gyle(?)]

Copy of note

<sup>1860</sup> R. F. Hill

Bank coin with head of Minerva about 18 or 20 years old in good money value from $5.00 to $10.00 because of rarity

I have seen the under side of several, the other side of Minerva or Caligula's image. Can't be duplicated. Would not take any more for them now offered than for them. Give me by Letter Liacano at Rome or Jewish or Egyptian Shells of the time of Christ and I will give you of all I can see in great volume all as you wish. From my sister Alice and then to go to my excellent friend Samuel Taylor
Signed R. F. Hill
Rome - Dec
Feb 5/80

Copy of the Gills note

Fry
and 3/7

44

X

DR. J. T. FRY,
CALVESTON, TEXAS.

$\frac{4150}{4}$

Mr. J. H. Chapman
Librarian & Curator, Wm. H. Allen 1348
Pine Street
Albany, N. Y.